Why Annex Park?

- In path of Page's growth
- Near lower-income families
- Already LWCF property (great for grants)
- Lots of parking
- Next to Splash Pad, Recreation Center, and other future recreational developments

Strong LWCF Grant Advantage

- Land already protected for recreation
- Counts as renovation (easier & higher priority)

Arizona State Parks and Trails provides funding for outdoor recreation and historic preservation projects statewide! Arizona State Parks and Trails has helped administer grant funding for over

3,061 outdoor recreational projects in Arizona. Have you ever wanted to add a new recreational feature to your town, city or county?

Arizona State Parks & Trails invites non-profits; local, county, state, federal, tribal governments; schools; and law enforcement agencies to submit grant applications for a variety of funding opportunities, including:

Create a True Family Recreation Hub

- Near Splash Pad, Pump Track & Recreation Center
- Parents can watch games while kids play safely
- One convenient location for multiple activities
- Better supervision and longer family visits

Why Right Next to the Splash Pad?

- Kids cool off and jump back on equipment
- Perfect for hot Page summers
- Mix of dry play + water play
- Easier for parents to supervise one area

Ultra ADA & Inclusive Features

- Ramps for play access
- Sensory elements (music, touch, sound)
- Inclusive swings
- Quiet zones
- Soft rubber surfacing + wide paths
