Programing/Events

Page Public Library supported and hosted multiple programs. These programs promoted community building engagement, provided accessible education, and supported local students.

AZ Speaks

Cora Tso, a Senior Research Fellow at Arizona State University's Kyl Center for Water Policy, gave a presentation titled "Water, Sovereignty, and Survival: Understanding Tribal Water Rights in Arizona" as part of the AZ Humanities AZ Speaks series. This project was in support of the America 250th initiative to celebrate and commemorate the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Road to 250: Arizona Traveling Museum

The Road to 250: Arizona Traveling Museum recently made a significant impact, welcoming 528 visitors to experience Arizona's rich history and heritage. A highlight of the exhibit was the replica Liberty Bell, cast with Arizona copper, which served as a meaningful symbol of freedom and unity for attendees.

Through immersive and interactive exhibits, visitors explored the "past, present, and future" of both Arizona and the United States in celebration of the nation's 250th anniversary. The exhibit successfully connected local communities with the founding ideals of America while making history engaging, educational, and accessible for all ages.

Children's After Hours: Nerf Gun War

The "Children's After Hours" event was a tremendous success, bringing together 64 children for an evening filled with excitement, laughter, and high-energy fun. The atmosphere was lively as friends teamed up and competed in an epic Nerf battle accompanied by upbeat music and friendly competition. From the action-packed games to the excitement of winning prizes, the event provided a fun and memorable opportunity for kids to connect with their peers, burn off energy, and create lasting memories.
